Wedding bells are ringing at WILLIAM MOORE's today.

It is with the deepest sorrow we chronicled the death of ZELLAH JANE FRAZIER, which occurred at her home Dec. 18th, 1891, resulting from that dread disease, cancer. She was the widow of the late JOHN FRAZIER of Warren Township. Mrs. FRAZIER was born in Lancaster County, Pa., March 8th, 1805, thus living more than four score and six years. In 1826 she was married to JOHN FRAZIER and in 1831 with two children they moved on the farm where D.B. FRAZIER now lived; about 1855 thence to what is known as the KARR farm where died. She was the mother of ten children, three of which survive: Mrs. C.F. SCOTT of Carroll County, Mrs. JAMES WAGGONER of Bergholz and D.B. of Hopedale, who with a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren and a host of friends mourn her loss. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church for fifty years, filling that place with honor and trust. It can be truthfully said of Grandmother FRAZIER that she was a good woman.

Hammondsville: Rev. Father LEYDEN of Toronto held services in the Catholic Church Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. M.J. INGRAM are spending their Holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Dr. KIRK of Pittsburg. The Rev. is improving very much since he moved to Point Lookout farm.

Rev. H.H. WESTWOOD, pastor in charge here, has closed a very interesting meeting at New Somerset. He is doing business at Alliance today.

MARK NOONAN is again able to be around, but not able to go to work yet, but thinks he will be soon. He is the oldest section man in this community. He was struck on the leg by a pick some time ago, that was struck by a passing train and thrown and he not having time to get out of its way.

N.W. MAPLE has been confined to the house during the past two weeks with la grippe.

F.F. SPRAGUE, boss at the WALLACE brick yard, has been wrestling with the same disease for the past week, but the brick yard still continues to run with R.G. at the helm.

Teacher's Examination: J. BUCHANAN, Clerk

Canfield Not Guilty: New Lisbon, Ohio Dec. 25 - The trial of WILLIAM CANFIELD for train wrecking is ended; a jury of citizens has declared him innocent, and he is now free, after an imprisonment of eighty-three days and nights . . . Judge NICHOLS adjourned court at the conclusion of the argument of W.S. ANDERSON . . . Jurymen and counsel alike wanted C.S. SPEAKER to conclude his remarks before supper . . . Prosecuting Attorney P.M. SMITH would make the final plea for the state . . . At nine minutes to 12 o'clock the jury retired in charge of Sheriff WYMAN . . . at 12:01 o'clock the verdict was handed to the clerk of courts, Ed A. KING, by B.S. YOUNG, the foreman, and not guilty was the finding of the jury . . . to use the remark of Juror HIRAM GAVEN, who has served on many juries since 1850, there never was anything like it in the experience of the oldest inhabitant . . . It is a curious incident that on the day before Christmas last year the case of IRA MARLATT was given to the jury at 3 o' clock that afternoon, and a verdict of murder in the first degree was returned after it was out about six hours . . . In the northern part of this county are several Quaker settlements and there are no large towns, yet since 1885 all of the four murders committed and the train wrecking at East Palestine occurred in the extreme townships. BURT was from Unity; CHEPPEL, Salem; POLITZKA, MARLATT and CANFIELD, Fairfield, and this latter township may contribute another, as STEPHEN RAMBO, the man cut by Ed YOUNG on Tuesday, is in a dangerous condition and may die from the effects of his injuries.

Sheriff Sale: CAROLINE MANSFIELD vs JOHN DOBBS, JR. . . . lands conveyed by BAZALEEL WELLS to THOMAS GLENN, known as ARNOLD's Run, on the south by AULT's Run . . . bounded by lands sold by BAZALEEL Wells to JACOB COBLE . . . HENRY OPPERMAN, sheriff; McCLAVE & LEWIS, attys.

Notice: An application for the pardon of JAMES RITSON, now a prisoner on parole for manslaughter.

Administrator's Notice: JAMES T. KITHCART appointed administrator of estate of J.E. HENDERSON, late, of Smithfield Township, deceased. DUNBAR & KITHCART, attys.

Notice: Application for pardon on behalf of TONY PICINO, who was at the February term, 1889 . . . convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to imprisonment for life. A.H. BATTIN, atty.

Obituary: DAVID SPAULDING, an old and highly-respected citizen of Steubenville, died at his home on North Fourth Street Thursday evening at 5:30 of pneumonia. He was surrounded by his family and passed away as if falling into a sweet, restful sleep. By his death a long and busy life has ended, an enterprising, energetic man and good citizen has gone to his reward. David Spaulding was born in Sandwich, Barnstable County, Mass., of Puritan parentage, March 29th, 1810, and had he lived until next March, he would have been eighty-two years of age. In 1832 he came from New England to Pittsburg, where he engaged in the iron business, he having followed the same occupation in Massachusetts. In Pittsburg he was married to ELIZABETH WALLACE, daughter of JOHN WALLACE, and sister of HENRY WALLACE, afterwards associated with Mr. Spaulding in the Jefferson Iron Works Co., March 17th, 1836. From Pittsburg he moved to Wheeling in 1852 and to Steubenville in 1859. He came here with S.H. WOODWARD, HENRY WALLACE, C.B. DOTY, JOHN McCLINTON, W.R.E. ELLIOTT, HALSTINE HARDEN, and others. They organized the Jefferson Iron Works Co., of which Mr. Spaulding was President during the twenty-three years which were the years of the Jefferson's greatest prosperity. After his retirement he engaged in the manufacture of nails at Brilliant, which business he conducted up to a few years ago. He was a man of remarkable activity for one of his years, and his life time was almost free from illness. Steubenville is very much indebted to his enterprise for the Jefferson Iron Works, one of our largest industries. Mr. Spaulding's social qualities were those of a high-toned gentleman. He was a friendly man, a good conversationalist, for his mind was well stored with information. As a student in the school of political and social economy he was an apt and eager pupil. He was a gentleman, kind of heart and courtly mannered. Mrs. Spaulding died August 17, 1879. The surviving children are C.H. SPAULDING, Esq., of Brilliant, Mrs. HAWKINS, EMMA DRENNAN, and EOLINE at home, and Mrs. DODGE of Columbus.

Obituary: Hon. A.T. READY - It is with deep regret we chronicle the death of Hon. ARMISTEAD T. READY, for many years a prominent member of the New Philadelphia bar, which occurred at his home on Saturday, Dec. 26, after a short illness of erysipelas. He was about 69 years of age and until his recent illness as vigorous in appearance as any man we know, though some years ago he had a severe attack that brought him to the very verge of the grave . . . With certain older members of the Tuscarawas bar this tie was very close, notably with Judge HANCE, whose sense of loss at his friend's sudden death will be deep and grievous. Mr. Ready married JANE, oldest daughter of the late Dr. JOHN McBEAN of Cadiz, and whose mother, Mrs. BELINDA McBEAN, is still living there. Mrs. Ready is also sister to Mrs. JUDGE McMATH of Cleveland, Mrs. D.A. HOLLINGSWORTH and Mrs. W.S. CESSNA of Cadiz. Another sister is widow of the late Dr. HOGE of Cambridge. Besides his wife Mr. Ready leaves two children, KATE, wife of Judge J.B. WEIGHT of Mr. Vernon, and JOHN, connected with the Dixon Lead-pencil Company of New Jersey.

He was walking from Mingo to Steubenville and when at BORLAND's shaft stepped off the east bound track to the west bound to avoid a freight train, but the fog being very heavy he did not see the passenger train which struck him. One leg was broken and his head was contused and his death was instant. He was about twenty-eight years of age and unmarried. His remains were brought to LINDSEY's undertaking rooms and taken to Mingo this morning, from where they will be buried at George's Run Church Yard Sunday at 2 o'clock by the Red, White and Blue Council, Junior Order American Mechanics of Mingo.

The following item of news from The Columbus Dispatch is of local interest, Mr. LAWSON being our old Wellsville friend whose discovery of the cause of boiler explosions has been so much discussed within recent years, and Mr. CAMPBELL being one of Steubenville's best known citizens, though of recent years Cashier of the State Treasury at Columbus. We quote: Among the articles of incorporation filed with the Secretary of State today, was that of the Ohio Lawson Non-Explosive Boiler Company, a new enterprise just organized for Columbus and having an authorized capital stock of $300,000, its purpose being to manufacture steam boilers and other machinery. The incorporators comprise a number of well-known and practical citizens, as follows: A.H. McALPIN, WILLIAM FELTON, H.A. AXLINE, CHARLES G. LORD, J.C. TAYLOR, O.T. LAWSON, S.B. CAMPBELL and D.T. LAWSON.

Last night JACOB MARCUS was robbed of $90 in money and charged ISRAEL BLUENSBERG with the crime. Jacob was at BRINKMAN's place during the afternoon and went to bed at 4 o'clock, his brother, NATHAN MARCUS, who is employed at Brinkman's, placing Jacob's money in the safe. During the night Jacob got up and demanded his money. Nathan took it out of the safe and gave it to him and the two together with Bluensberg started for Seventh Street. When on Adams Street, between Third and Fourth, Jacob missed his money, and thinking Nathan had not given it to him, made a demand for it. Nathan didn't have it, and charged Bluensberg with taking it. The latter was arrested and all three of the men searched, Bluensberg protesting his innocence all the while, declaring that he had but $5 about him. However the search was continued until the Mayor found $60 on his person, and the bills tallied with Jacob's description exactly, the missing $30 being a $20 and a $10 bill. In default of $500 bail, Bluensberg was sent to jail.

A telegram was received yesterday morning by W.B. DONALDSON announcing the death of his brother-in-law, WILLIAM K. SALMON, of Napa, Cal. No particulars were given except the fact that he had passed away on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Salmon was a native of this city, but the greater part of his life was spent in the State of his adoption, having gone to California when but nineteen years of age, at the time of the gold excitement in 1849. In 1857 he returned to Steubenville and married MARY JANE, eldest daughter of the late WM. DONALDSON, and since then has resided in the vicinity of Napa. Mr. Salmon was a very liberal supporter of the Presbyterian Church of which he was for many years a Trustee. He was of a happy, genial disposition and he and his wife were great favorites in the social circle, and many of our citizens who have visited the Pacific Coast and been entertained in their home, can testify to their whole souled hospitality. They had no children, and the many friends of his now lonely wife here deeply sympathize with her in this sad hour of bereavement.

The funeral services over the remains of DAVID SPAULDING were held at the family residence on North Fourth Street Saturday afternoon. His old pastor, Rev. Mr. CARROLL came from Chardon to conduct the service, arriving here at two o'clock. He knew Mr. Spaulding well, and his address was eulogistic . . .

Obituary: JOHN C. COPELAND, one of Steubenville's oldest and best citizens died at his home on Logan Street Sunday, January 3rd, at eleven o'clock, by wearing out of vital forces from old age, in his 85th year. He was born in Franklin County, Pa., December 2d, 1807, and when still a boy came to Steubenville with his parents. He has been twice married, his first wife ELIZABETH being a daughter of WM. LOWRY who will be remembered by our older citizens as a surveyor and one of the early editors of The Steubenville Herald. Seven children blessed this union, five of whom survive: JAMES L. and JOHN M. of Columbus, DANIEL P. of Mansfield, Mrs. J.W. EVANS and Mrs. M.J. URQUHART of Steubenville. About forty years ago Mrs. Copeland died of cholera and Mr. Copeland subsequently married the widow of CHARLES B. MCGONIGLE of Carlisle, Pa., who with their daughter LIZZIE survives the husband and father. For many years Mr. Copeland was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, but about thirty years ago he united with the Hamline M.E. Church. Though failing health has prevented his attendance in late years, prior he was one of the most efficient members, being active in every department of church and Sabbath School work, and though too infirm for such work he took great interest in the erection of the beautiful Hamline Church now nearly completed. He was probably the oldest member of Jefferson Lodge I.O.O.F. in Steubenville. In early life Mr. Copeland was a cabinet-maker. He afterwards worked at carpentry and was a very skilled artisan, many of the finest houses in the city being finished by him. Together with the late JOHN LOWE, under the firm name of Lowe & Copeland, he embarked in the planing mill business, selling out after a few years to LOUIS ANDERSON. His last active employment was in the railroad shops in this city where he remained until their removal to Columbus, since which time he has lived in retirement enjoying the blessings of a happy old age resulting from a long life usefully spent. He was buried from his late residence on Logan Street above Fourth, Tuesday afternoon.

Obituary: CUTHBERT GLOVER, a prominent and useful citizen of Smithfield, this county, died at his home on the first day of January, 1892, in the 72d year of his age, of a complication of diseases of which he had been suffering for many years. Mr. Glover was born and reared in Jefferson County; he was kind and generous to his family of wife and daughter, and in fact to all who became acquainted with him. He was an excellent business man and was identified with the interests of the county; he was a Director of the Smithfield National Bank and held minor offices in the village of Smithfield, this county, and by industry, economy and frugality, he accumulated a competency for his family. He was a brother of JOSIAH GLOVER of near Smithfield, and left a number of relatives in Coshocton County. He was married to SUSAN McGREW, a sister of Mrs. JOSEPH HALL of this city. He left one child, Miss DELLA, at home with her mother. He was buried at Smithfield on Sunday morning, the 3rd inst, and the funeral was very largely attended.

LAUGHLIN, Dr. L. WHITE, Dr. S. ROTHACKER and The Royal Gas Company ...

It is with sorrow that we note the death of JESSIE EDGINGTON, daughter of JOHN L. and MATTIE HEBRON, Friday night at 10 o'clock after an illness of seven weeks, the cause of death being typhoid fever. She was convalescing from the first attack which was slight, and being so deeply interested in her studies, she called at the High School to make inquiries about her lessons. The exertion caused a relapse and she was again on a bed of fever. During this last illness there was seldom a ray of hope for her recovery, and last night she fell to sleep in the arms of her Saviour. Her age was but seventeen years and ten months - a young and beautiful life gone out before its time, a life full of promise and happy prospect cut off by Death. Miss Hebron was a happy girl; her gentle manners and sweet disposition endearing her to all who knew her. She was a general favorite of the High School graduating class of which she was a member. She was an active member of the First M.E. Church and of the Epworth League, always taking a deep interest in the work of these religious bodies. Her death, although not unexpected, has cast a gloom over the community, in which her people are so well and fondly known. Her father's cup of sorrow has certainly filled to overflowing; first his father, then a sister died, and now so soon after following these loved ones to the grave, his beloved daughter is claimed by Death. In his bereavement we know he has the kindest sympathy of our people.

Obituary: WILLIAM RICHARDS died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Lewis, in Alikanna at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night, in the one hundred and first year of his age. He passed away peacefully and without pain, falling into apparently a quiet, restful sleep. Wm. Richards was a remarkable man, both physically and mentally. He was born in Wales Oct. 30th, 1791, coming to America in 1832. He was an iron worker, following this business up to 1860. He had been a resident of Pittsburg for fifty years, coming to Steubenville to live with his daughter about five years ago. While a citizen of Pittsburg he was a very prominent man in literary and religious circles, he being a poet of considerable ability. He was a member of the old Welch Congregational Church in Pittsburg, of which he had been an elder for fifty years and when it was built he furnished the brick and his wife furnished the inside work. He was a temperate man as well as religious, and he never used tobacco or intoxicants in any form. Since coming to Alikanna he lived a quiet life, devoting his whole time to reading and writing of which he was very fond. He had always been remarkable for vigor of mind and body. He leaves seven children, D.J. RICHARDS, Postmaster at Zanesville and proprietor of The Zanesville Times-Recorder; WM C. RICHARDS of Pittsburg, SARAH LEWIS of Alikanna, Mrs. JANE BEBB of Palmyra, Ohio, and THOS. E. of Zanesville. The remains will be taken to Pittsburg Friday morning and the funeral services will be held in the Old Welch Church on the South Side.

Obituary: Hon. WILLIAM M. FARRAR, who died at his beautiful home in Cambridge Monday night, was born September 3d, 1824, in Washington County, Pa., of Welch-English and Scotch-Irish ancestry. After completing the usual course of education he read law and was admitted to practice at Washington in 1848, and soon after came to Ohio, locating at Cambridge where he resided up on his death. Among his college mates were Dr. A.M. REID and M.L. MILLER of this city, both of whom always held him in highest esteem. He was elected the first Clerk of the Courts for Guernsey County under the new constitution of 1850 and re-elected in 1854. In 1861 in connection with Major SAMUEL C. BROWN, who was killed at Chickamauga, recruited what afterwards became Co. H. of the Sixty-fifth Regiment O.V.I. and also a part of the well-known Sherman Brigade, a military organization that rendered distinguished services during the war, of which Gen. C.G. HARKER, who fell in the assault on Kennesaw, was the first commander. Captain Farrar also served as aid de-camp to Gen. GARFIELD and was present with that officer at the conference held at Gen. ROSECRANS' headquarters at the widow GLENN's house on the night of Sept. 19, 1863, when the plan of battle for next day was determined, and was employed until long after midnight in preparing written orders for the several corps and division commanders, and on the next day, Sunday forenoon, was an eye witness of the fatal mishaps that broke the Union line and swept the right wing of the army from the field. He has filled various public offices and was especially interested in the cause of education. He devoted much time and labor to the task of gathering data for correct history and he contributed many articles of value and interest to magazines devoted to this line of study. He seemed to feel that he had a mission to correct mistakes in facts of history. He was an authority on Indian antiquities, and only two years ago in company with Dr. REID of this city, located the scene of the Poe-Bigfoot fight and also an old fort in the neighborhood of Burgettstown. He had at his tongue's end all the facts of Indian history, especially of this region of Ohio, and his brilliant conversational powers always made him an interesting story teller. His last published contribution was an extended paper on the Gnadenhutzen massacre, read before the last meeting of the State Historical Society of which he was a most active member ... His wife, ANNA BROWNE FARRAR, and one daughter Mrs. MULFORD of Los Angeles, Ca. survive him. Judge J.W. CAMPBELL of the Muskingum district is a nephew, and Mrs. W.H. HUNTER of this city is a niece. He was a brother-in-law of W.C. BROWNE, President of the City Bank, New Philadelphia. The funeral will be Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and will be attended by Dr. REID.

Obituary: MAURICE MYERS, an old Steubenville nailer died at his home in Brilliant at 5 o'clock last night of nailer's consumption, in the 60th year of his age. He came here in 1862 from Benwood, W.Va., and worked as a nail feeder several years and as a nailer up to '83, when he went with SPAULDING's to Brilliant. For two years he had been too ill to work and was confined to his home. He leaves his wife, MARY WILLIAMS, sister of THOMAS WILLIAMS, the nailer, and six children, all of whom live at home, except Thomas who lives in Steubenville. He was a member of Eureka Lodge, K. of P., and Steuben Grove of the Druids. He was a man of good character, kind and generous. He loved his fellow-man, and this spirit was reciprocated, for he said ill of no one and no one spoke ill of him. He was a quiet, unobtrusive man, a good citizen, kind husband and indulgent father. The funeral will be Saturday afternoon on the arrival of the 1:46 train on the C&P.

Yesterday, January 12th, was JOHN B. GARRETT's seventy-fourth birthday, and it was made a happy occasion for him by his fellow-boarders at The Clarendon, who presented him with an elegant gold-headed cane in commemoration of the day. The cane was presented last evening at 7 o'clock. Mr. Garrett was taken wholly by surprise, but was none the less happy over the thoughtfulness of his fellows. He responded in a neat little speech, in which he thanked the gentlemen for their kind regard for him. After the speech cigars were served, and a jolly time was participated in by all. Among those in the party were C.S. BOURLIER, ED. MAHAN, WILSON JONES, BILLY LEO, HENRY VAUGHN, CAPTAIN MYERS, GEORGE S. THOMAS, AL KAISER, SAM KENNEDY, and Mine Host JOSEPH GREEN and Clerk JO SCHALER.
