Sister Mary Zattolo

STEUBENVILLE — Sister Mary Emanuela Zattolo, 93, of Steubenville died Wednesday, Jan. 15, 1997, at Trinity Medical Center East.

Sister Mary was born in Grotte, Italy, Dec. 3, 1903, a daughter of the late Giuseppe and Maria Carmela Russo.

She entered the Pontifical Institute of the "Handmaids of Reparation of the Sacred Heart of Jesus" in 1923 in Messina, Italy. She made her temporary vows in 1924 and her final profession in 1927.

For 27 years, Sister Mary served the community in Italy in different ministries: teaching grade school, Catechism and giving private music and French lessons.

While spending time with her family in the United States, Sister Mary visited her cousin, Sister Jeannette, a nun of the congregation, "Apostles of the Sacred Heart," who encouraged her to establish a convent in this country.

Mother Seraphina, the order's superior general, gave her permission and, together with two other sisters, the late Sister Michelina and Sister Candida, Sister Mary began the first apostolate in this country.

From 1950 to 1958, the three sisters ministered at Hoosier Boys' Town, Schereville, Ind. In their apostolate there, they served the spiritual and physical needs of the young.

In 1958, they were accepted in the Diocese of Steubenville by the late Bishop John King Musio, where they started a private pre-school and kindergarten in downtown Steubenville. The sisters also made vestments for priests, sewed garments for the religious communities and taught home economics.

With the help of area benefactors, a new facility known as Sacred Heart Villa was erected. Sister Mary continued to teach until she was in her late 80s.

As the community grew, the sisters expanded their teaching ministry in parish schools of the area. They also expanded their catechetical ministries to the Diocese of Arlington, Va.

Sister Mary Emanuela served as local superior in the Steubenville convent from 1960 to 1972.

She is survived by a sister, Patricia Fantuzzo of New Kensington, Pa.
