

PERLSTEIN, Louise Weisberger

February 2, 1922-December 30, 2014

Louise was born in Mingo Junction Ohio, to Bertha and Herman Weisberger. She attended Goucher College, and graduated from Ohio State. She met and married Alfred Perlstein, and lived in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania with their two children, Janet and Richard. She and Fred relocated to Boca Raton, Florida in 1980, where they had an active life and many friends. The lights of her life were her grandchildren, Rachel, Max, Michael, and Adam. She leaves behind her husband of 62 years, Fred Perlstein of Boca Raton, Florida, daughter Janet Morgan (Larry Sperling) of Los Angeles, son Richard Perlstein (Susan) of Corte Madera, California, and grandchildren Rachel & Max Morgan and Michael & Adam Perlstein. In lieu of flowers, make donations to Jewish Healing & Hospice Center,L.A. (www.jhcla.org).

Louise Weisberger Perlstein Obituary, Los Angeles Times, 31 December 2014.

Submitted by Eleanor Evans Borkenhagen.

Transcribed by Jill Pelland Boettcher.